CHAPTER 13
CRIMINAL RULES

RULE 1300

California Rules of Court shall apply as supplemented by the following local rules. (Eff. July 1, 1998.)

RULE 1301

Felony, misdemeanor and infraction matters shall be filed and heard pursuant to Rule 131. (Eff. July 1, 1998. As amended, eff. January 1, 2017.)

RULE 1311 PRIORITY OF PROTECTIVE ORDERS AND MODIFICATION

- (a) This Rule sets forth the court communication protocol for Domestic Violence and Child Custody Orders as required by California Rules of Court, Rule 5.445. The purpose of this Rule is to avoid conflicting orders whenever possible, and to permit appropriate visitation between a restrained person and his or her child while providing for the safety of all victims and witnesses and the proper consideration of the best interests of the child.
- (b) Pursuant to Penal Code, section 136.2(c) and (e) and Family Code, sections 6383(h)(2) and 6405(b), Criminal Protective Orders take precedence over all other protective orders issued by the Civil, Family, Juvenile and Probate Courts, unless an emergency protective order issued by another court, or a no-contact order under Family Code, section 6320, sets forth more restrictive terms against a restrained party.
- (c) When the Criminal Court issues a Criminal Protective Order:
 - (1) The Criminal Court shall determine whether there are any minor children of the relationship between the defendant/restrained person and the victim/protected person, and whether there are any court orders for custody/visitation for those minor children.
 - (2) If there are minor children, the Criminal Court shall consider whether peaceful contact with the victim/protected person should be allowed for the purpose of allowing defendant/restrained person to visit the minor children. Peaceful contact with the minor children and victim/protected person shall be permitted under any Criminal Protective Order for the purpose of attending court-ordered mediation and/or Family Court hearings.
 - (3) The Criminal Court shall also determine whether there are any existing orders involving the defendant/restrained person, the victim/protected person, and/or the minor children. The court shall examine available databases for existing orders before issuing a permanent Criminal Protective Order.
 - (4) If the Criminal Protective Order includes minor children as named protected parties, the order may be made explicitly subject to modification by a judge of the Civil, Family, Juvenile, or Probate Court. If this qualifying clause is not included in the Criminal Protective Order, the order may not be modified without notification and consent of the Department of the court assigned to the criminal case. It is the policy of the Superior Court of San Bernardino County that the Juvenile Court is best equipped to determine the best interests of any minor children, and the criminal court shall give due consideration to making the criminal court order expressly subject to modification by the Juvenile Court whenever a Juvenile Court case is pending or is likely to be initiated.

- (5) When the Criminal Court issues a Criminal Protective Order that lists the defendant/restrained person's minor child or children as protected persons, the Criminal Court shall transmit a copy of the order to any Civil, Family, Juvenile, or Probate Court in which a matter concerning the defendant and the protected minor or minors is pending.
- (d) When a Criminal Protective Order exists and a judicial officer in another court has a case in which he or she determines that it is appropriate to permit visitation different than that provided for in the Criminal Protective Order and that order has not been made expressly subject to modification by the court desiring a modification of the order:
 - (1) The Judicial Assistant for the judicial officer requesting modification of the Criminal Protective Order shall contact the court clerk for the Criminal Court to inform the Criminal Court that a modification is requested and shall inform the court clerk for Criminal Court of all pertinent information, including the terms of the proposed modification and the identity of all parties to the action over which the judge requesting a modification has jurisdiction.
 - (2) The Criminal Court shall set a hearing date on the request for a modification for no later than 30 calendar days after the receipt of the request for modification, or as soon thereafter as the court's calendar allows, and shall provide notification in writing to all parties to both the criminal case and the matter in which the modification request was made. Such notice shall inform all parties of the modification request, the terms of the proposed modification and the hearing date, and shall specifically indicate that a request for modification has been made pursuant to this Rule.
 - (3) Any written opposition to the modification request shall be filed no later than 9 court days prior to the hearing and shall be served in the manner provided for the filing of oppositions in Chapter 5 of Title 14 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Any reply to any opposition shall be served and filed in the manner allowed by the Code.
 - (4) The hearing date on the proposed modification shall not be continued except on a showing of good cause.
 - (5) After hearing, and after consideration of the proposed modification and all arguments in favor and in opposition to the proposed modification, the Criminal Court shall, in its discretion, modify the Criminal Protective Order as requested, or make such other modifications to the Criminal Protective Order as the court deems appropriate, or decline to modify the Criminal Protective Order, stating the reasons for the court's decision to accept, modify or reject the proposed modification on the record.
 - (6) The Criminal Court shall transmit a copy of its order on the proposed modification to the court making the request for modification.
- (e) For the purposes of this Rule:

- (1) “Criminal Court” means a Department of this Court assigned to a criminal case.
- (2) “Civil Court” means a Department of this Court assigned to a civil case.
- (3) “Juvenile Court” means a Department of this Court assigned to juvenile cases.
- (4) “Family Court” means a Department of this Court assigned to family cases.
- (5) “Probate Court” means a Department of this Court assigned to probate cases.
- (6) A “Criminal Protective Order” is a restraining order or protective order against the defendant in a criminal case issued by a criminal court as a term of probation, bail release or own recognizance release prohibiting the defendant from communicating or contacting any specified person, category of persons or a specified witness or victim.

(Eff., July 1, 2003. Amended, eff. January 1, 2008, and July 1, 2013. As amended, eff. January 1, 2017.)

RULE 1320 P. C. 995 MOTIONS

P.C. 995 motions shall be heard in the department scheduled to hear the trial on the case. However, if the trial Court was the committing magistrate, then the motion shall be heard by another judicial officer. If the motion is denied on its merits, the case shall be assigned back to the original judicial officer.

Moving papers filed in support of P.C. 995 motions must include the following:

- (a) A brief statement in summary form of the facts as set forth in the transcript.
- (b) A statement of the issues, specifically identifying in what regard the People's case is defective.
- (c) Where defendant intends to rely upon some testimony in the transcript, the moving papers shall contain references to such testimony identified as to page and line number of the transcript.
- (d) A statement of the authorities upon which defendant relies with explanation as to why they are applicable. (Mere citation of sections in the California Penal Code and the U.S. Constitution shall not be sufficient.)

(Former Rule 455, eff. May 27, 1982. Renumbered as Rule 1320 and amended, eff. July 1, 1998. Amended, eff. January 1, 2008. As amended, eff. January 1, 2017.)

RULE 1322 TRANSFER OF CASES

Probation Revocation:

1. If a defendant has an active, pending case in any Superior Court District, then any revocation of probation case shall be transferred to that District.
2. Supervising Criminal Judges of the respective Districts may transfer cases between them.

Notwithstanding Rule 1301, in situations where a defendant has multiple criminal cases, the Court should have all of a defendant’s open cases heard in a single primary courtroom.

An open case is one in which the defendant has charges pending, is currently on probation (either formal or informal) or has outstanding fines, fees or restitution.

In deciding which court will be the primary court for purposes of resolving all of the defendant's cases, open cases shall be ranked as follows:

1. New case with felony charges pending
2. Felony probation case
3. New case with misdemeanor charges pending
4. Misdemeanor probation case
5. Cases with only outstanding money balances

The court with the highest ranking case shall be the primary department in resolving all of a defendant's open cases. If a defendant has two new cases with charges pending, the court that has the case with the highest potential exposure, including all enhancements and special allegations, is the primary court.

The primary court has the authority to order all of the defendant's open cases transferred to it without the necessity of contacting the supervising judge of the district from which the case(s) are being ordered.

The primary court is responsible for determining whether the secondary cases have any time problems. After transferring secondary cases to itself the primary court is responsible for resolution of those cases and cannot send them back without authorization of the supervising judge of the original district.

The judge of the primary court is to contact the judge in the other district to whom the case is assigned to arrange for transferring the secondary case to the primary court. If the judges cannot agree on a course of action, then the supervising judges of the districts will determine whether a transfer should occur. (Eff. July 1, 1998. Amended, eff. January 1, 2009.)

If it is determined that the written complaint does not present reasonable cause to support a finding of misconduct, the complainant will be informed in writing that further review is not warranted. If the complaint is deemed to be of merit, the complainant will be notified that the matter will be reviewed further. The minor's counsel will be provided a summary of the complaint and an opportunity to provide a written response. The reviewing judge will determine what action, if any, will be taken. (b) Determination of ability to pay

If a party is currently eligible for a fee waiver under Government Code, section 68511.3 (in forma pauperis), the party should be deemed unable to pay any part of the costs of the appointed counsel.

In all other cases, the Court should determine ability to pay based on the party's income and assets reasonably available. The Court may require the party to file and serve a current income and expense statement unless the party has already filed one in the proceeding that represents the party's financial status at the time of the determination.

The court may make the determination of the ability to pay at the time of appointment of counsel, or thereafter at the request of appointed counsel but not later than 30 days after appointed counsel is relieved as attorney of record.

No attorney will be appointed by the Court to represent a party in a dependency proceeding who has not submitted to the Court, and the Court has approved, a Certification of Competency. Further, no privately retained counsel will be allowed to appear on behalf of a party in a juvenile dependency proceeding unless they have submitted to the Court, and the Court has approved, a Certification of Competency or a knowing and intelligent waiver by the party of such certification.

The Court may at any time review an attorney's competency to represent parties in juvenile matters or otherwise inquire about the attorney's competency to represent parties in juvenile matters. PART THIRTEEN GUARDIANSHIPS OF MINORS

RULE 20-1301 APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN OF MINOR

Probate Code Section 2106 provides that the court in its discretion may issue letters of guardianship of the person or estate, or both, of more than one minor upon the same application. In proper cases the court will appoint a guardian of the person or estate of more than one minor, but only if the minors so joined have a common parent. (Former Rule 1401, rev. Dec.1993. Renumbered as Rule 1301, eff. July 1, 1998. Renumbered as Rule 20-1301, eff. July 1, 2007.)

RULE 20-1302 SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

Petitions for appointment will be filed with all supporting documentation. When known, the full names, including middle names, of the petitioner(s), the minor(s), the mother and father must be set forth in all petitions for guardianship. When the father(s) is/are listed as “unknown,” a copy of each minor’s birth certificate shall be filed with the guardianship petition or a declaration stating why it is unavailable shall be filed. Petitioner shall make every effort to file the certificate with the court prior to or at the hearing on the appointment petition. (Former Rule 1402, rev. Dec. 1993. Renumbered as Rule 1302, eff. RULE 20-1304 ORDER PRESCRIBING AND DISPENSING NOTICE RE APPOINTMENT GUARDIAN

(a) Orders Prescribing Notice are not normally submitted to the court. The court will determine which persons must be given notice based upon the requirements of the Probate Code.

(b) All requests to dispense with notice for persons who are unknown to petitioners; or are deceased; or who cannot reasonably be located after a good faith, diligent search has been completed, must be accompanied by a fully completed declaration of Due Diligence form.

These forms may be obtained in the Probate Clerk's office and Probate Courthouse.

(1) Requests to dispense with notice to an unknown father require the filing of a certified copy of the minor's birth certificate with the declaration of Due Diligence. Testimony and/or a declaration under the penalty of perjury may also be required regarding any knowledge or information about the father's identity.

(Former Rule 1404, rev. Dec. 1993. Renumbered as Rule 1304 and amended, eff. July 1, 1998. Amended, eff. July 1, 2006. Renumbered as Rule 20-1304, eff. July 1, 2007. As amended, eff. January 1, 2018.)

RULE 20-1305 GUARDIANSHIP QUESTIONNAIRE AND INVESTIGATIONS

(a) A Guardianship Questionnaire shall be completed, signed and filed with all petitions for probate guardianship. The Guardianship Questionnaire form (San Bernardino County Local Form SB-18074) is available at the court's website or the probate clerk's office. Each proposed guardian shall complete, sign and file a separate Guardianship Questionnaire, even if they are married and/or living in the same household.

(b) A Termination of Guardianship – Parent Questionnaire form shall be completed, signed and filed with all petitions to terminate probate guardianship that are filed by a parent. The Termination of Guardianship – Parent Questionnaire form (San Bernardino County Local Form 13-19740-360) is available at the court's website or the probate clerk's office. Each petitioner shall complete, sign and file a separate Termination of Guardianship – Parent Questionnaire, even if they are married and/or living in the same household.

(Former Rule 1405, rev. Dec. 1993. Renumbered as Rule 1305, eff. July 1, 1998. Amended, eff. July 1, 2006 and January 1, 2007. Renumbered as Rule 20-1305, eff. July 1, 2007. Amended, eff. July 1, 2013 and July 1, 2015. As amended, eff. January 1, 2018.)

RULE 20-1306 CONSULTATION WITH OTHER DEPARTMENTS RE HABEAS CORPUS OR CUSTODY PROCEEDINGS

Where a petition for guardianship of the person of a minor is pending, and where it appears to the court that a custody proceeding or a writ of habeas corpus concerning the same minor is pending in any other department of the superior court, proceedings will be suspended until a consultation can be had between the judge of the probate department and the judge of the department in which such proceeding or writ is pending and a determination made as to whether or not such matter should be heard separately or a consolidation arranged. (Former Rule 1408, rev. Dec. 1993. Renumbered as Rule 1306, eff. July 1, 1998. Renumbered as Rule 20-1306, eff. July 1, 2007. As amended, eff. January 1, 2018.)

RULE 20-1307 GUARDIANS OF THE PERSON WHEN ADOPTION PROCEEDINGS ARE PENDING

A guardian of the person of a minor will not be appointed if adoption proceedings are pending unless a report is filed under authority of Section 1513 of the Probate Code by the appropriate officer or investigator with the State Department of Social Services authorizing the granting of said guardianship. (Former Rule 1409, rev. Dec. 1993. Renumbered as Rule 1307, eff. July 1, 1998. Renumbered as Rule 20-1307, eff. July 1, 2007. As amended, eff. January 1, 2018.)

RULE 20-1308 INCREASING AND DECREASING BOND OF GUARDIAN

When an increase in the guardian's bond is ordered, the court favors the filing of an additional bond rather than filing of a substitute bond; and where a decrease in the liability of the guardian's bond is ordered the court favors the use of an order decreasing liability under the existing bond rather than the filing of a substitute. (Former Rule 1410, rev. Dec. 1993. Renumbered as Rule 1308, eff. July 1, 1998. Renumbered as Rule 20-1308, eff. July 1, 2007.)

RULE 20-1309 DUTIES OF GUARDIAN - LIABILITY OF PARENTS TO SUPPORT CHILD

As there is a statutory liability upon the parents to support their children when one or both parents are living, the court will not permit guardianship funds to be used for the minor's benefit except upon a showing of circumstances which would justify the court in departing from this rule in the best interest of the minor. (Former Rule 1412, rev. Dec. 1993. Renumbered as Rule 1309 and amended, eff. July 1, 1998. Renumbered as Rule 20-1309, eff. July 1, 2007. As amended, eff. January 1, 2018.)

RULE 20-1311 ACCOUNTS OF GUARDIANSHIP

(a) The verified account is to be filed 30 days prior to the date set by the court for the review hearing. When a guardian accounts for the assets of more than one minor, the accounting for each minor must be set forth separately.

(b) Where payment for guardianship services is requested to be allowed to be made to third persons acting on behalf of a guardian, those persons shall sign a verification stating that they performed the services on the dates specified and received payment in the amount, if any, set forth in the account. The verification shall be attached to the account for the period in which the services were rendered.

(c) Duplicating, telephone, fax and other costs in guardianship estates - ordinarily the court will not allow reimbursement for costs of duplication of documents, telephone calls, FAX (except court charges), parking fees incurred by the attorney or guardian or ordinary mileage incurred by the attorney or guardian, as these are a part of overhead, and should be absorbed in fees or commissions.

The guardian is not reimbursed for the expenses of his or her trip to qualify, unless the guardian is waiving his or her fee.

(d) Private professional or licensed guardians or conservators who provide bank or investment account statements pursuant to Probate Code section 2620(c) shall provide two sets of documents under separate cover. The first set shall be filed with the court and shall include the account statements for the period preceding appointment (if a first accounting) and the periods for the start and end of the accounting period pursuant to Probate Code section 2620(c)(2). The second set shall be lodged with the court separately and shall include the account statements for the rest of the accounting period pursuant to Probate Code section 2620(c)(3). The court shall retain all documents lodged pursuant to Probate Code section 2620(c)(3) until the court's determination of the accounting has become final, at which time the documents shall be returned to the person who lodged them or delivered to any successor appointed by the court. The court will accept copies (as opposed to originals) of documents supporting accountings that are required by Probate Code section 2620(c). Copies of documents shall be marked and filed as exhibits to the accounting. The original documents, where available, shall be maintained by the parties and produced to the court upon its request.

(e) If all guardianship funds are held in a blocked account(s), in lieu of a formal accounting, the guardian may file Summary of Account – Standard and Simplified Accounts (Judicial Council Form GC-400(SUM)/GC-405(SUM), and attach all bank statements for the period of the account.

(f) No account balance may be larger than the amount covered by FDIC insurance.

(g) Financial institution accounts must be vested in the name of the fiduciary (e.g., [Name of Probate Guardian] as guardian of the estate of [Name of Probate Guardianship Minor]).

(Former Rule 1417, rev. Dec. 1993. Renumbered as Rule 1311 and amended, eff. July 1, 1998. Amended, January 1, 2000. January 1, 2003, July 1, 2003, January 1, 2005, July 1, 2006 and January 1, 2007. RULE 20-1312 GUARDIANSHIP INVENTORY AND APPRAISAL

Copies of investment account statements verifying the balance of cash and/or securities on hand must be attached to all Inventories and Appraisals. Letter verifications from the financial institution stating the balance as of the applicable date may be substituted for copies of the statements. RULE 20-1317 NOTICE TO INCARCERATED PERSONS

Pursuant to Probate Code section 1460(e), when a person who is to receive personal notice of a guardianship proceeding is incarcerated in a jail or prison at the time of the filing of the Petition for Guardianship, the court may find that service upon the incarcerated person by certified mail is legally sufficient. Such a request for alternative service shall be accompanied by a declaration explaining why it would be a hardship for the petitioner to personally serve the incarcerated person. (Eff., January 1, 2007. Renumbered as Rule 20-1317, eff. July 1, 2007.)

(b) Requests to waive interim accountings under Probate Code section 2628 may be made on an ex parte basis. All final accountings, including estates qualifying under section 2628, shall be set for hearing. In all cases in which the conservator seeks an order dispensing with a formal accounting pursuant to section 2628, the beginning and ending dates of the accounting period sought to be waived must be specified. An order dispensing with the filing of a formal accounting does not relieve the conservator from the duty of filing subsequent 2628 petitions or, where the estate no longer qualifies, a formal accounting pursuant to section 2620. If, after payment of court approved conservator's and attorneys' fees, it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the estate will continue indefinitely to meet the requirement of section 2628, the court may dispense with future accountings.

(c) Where payment for conservatorship services is requested to be allowed to be made to third persons acting on behalf of a conservator, those persons shall sign a verification stating that they performed the services on the dates specified and received payment in the amount set forth in the account. The verification shall be attached to the account for the period in which the services were rendered.

(d) Duplicating, telephone, fax and other costs in conservatorship estates- ordinarily the court will not allow reimbursement for costs of duplication of documents, (telephone calls, postage, FAX (except court charges), parking fees or ordinary mileage incurred by the attorney or conservator, as these are part of overhead, and should be absorbed in fees or commissions. The conservator is not reimbursed for the expenses of his or her trip to qualify, unless the conservator is waiving his or her fee.

(e) The petition for approval of an account must identify any funds on deposit in a blocked account. Proof of deposit and the blocked account status must be filed with the accounting, which may include bank statements clearly indicating that the funds are held in blocked accounts or a document on letterhead of the financial institution with an original signature of a bank representative.

(f) No account balance may be larger than the amount covered by FDIC insurance.

(g) Financial institution accounts must be in the name of the Conservator(e.g., [Name of Conservator] as conservator of the estate of [Name of Conservatee]).
