RELEASE DATE: JULY 1, 2025

SAN BERNARDINO SUPERIOR COURT UNVEILS REDESIGNED WEBSITE

SAN BERNARDINO, CA—San Bernardino Superior Court is pleased to announce the launch of its redesigned website, which adopts the Judicial Council of California’s standardized web template, currently used by more than 30 courts across the state. The new design enhances accessibility, streamlines navigation, and supports the Court’s ongoing commitment to modernization, as outlined in its Strategic Plan Court 360.

Beginning July 2, 2025, visitors to the Court’s current website can preview the new site and explore its improved layout, features, and navigation by clicking the banner displayed at the top of the homepage. The preview will remain available for two weeks before the official launch date on July 16, 2025.

“Our new website reflects a modern approach to sharing information and delivering services,” said Presiding Judge Lisa M. Rogan. “It ensures greater accessibility, especially for users on mobile devices.”

Key improvements include:

- Mobile-Friendly Design- A fully responsive layout optimized for smartphones and tablets to accommodate increased mobile traffic and guide users to online services.
- Improved Accessibility- Enhanced design and functionality to meet accessibility standards for all users.
- Better Availability- A more reliable platform to ensure the website remains available during periods of high demand.
- Search Engine Optimization- Improved search capabilities to help users more easily find information.
