SAN BERNARDINO SUPERIOR COURT HOSTS 5th VIRTUAL TOWNHALL ON ELIMINATING BIAS

SAN BERNARDINO, CA—San Bernardino Superior Court’s (SBSC) Community Outreach Committee is collaborating with local justice partners and county officials to host its fifth virtual townhall event focused on Eliminating Bias in the Juvenile Dependency Court on Thursday, May 5 from 12:00 p.m. (Noon) to 1:15 p.m.

During this 75-minute virtual townhall, leaders within the San Bernardino County justice system will continue the dialogue on bias and community impacts by informing attendees of the various roles and services in Dependency Court, while answering questions from the community. This townhall will be the fifth virtual event since 2020 with the goal of promoting community engagement and conversations to foster awareness, change and understanding.

Opening remarks will be provided by Presiding Judge R. Glenn Yabuno, with moderation by Judge John M. Pacheco and Judge Winston Keh. Panelists include: Judge Erin Alexander; Deputy County Counsel Sarah Oliver of County Counsel; Deputy Director Mia Moore of Family and Children’s Services; Patricia Staples, Children’s Advocacy Group; and Kathy Garcia of Friedland & Associates.

Registration is required in advance (click here) and questions are encouraged to be asked prior to the event via email to townhall@sb-court.org.

For media-related inquiries, please contact Julie Van Hook, Communications and Public Affairs Officer at courts-pio@sb-court.org.
