SAN BERNARDINO SUPERIOR COURT SELECTS NEW COURT COMMISSIONER

SAN BERNARDINO, CA—The Superior Court of San Bernardino County is pleased to announce the selection of Dina Issam Amani as the court's newest Commissioner, filling the vacancy created by the retirement of Commissioner John A. Crawley. Ms. Amani was officially sworn in on Tuesday, September 3, 2019, and will begin her new assignment at the Victorville Courthouse.

Ms. Amani has over 22 years of legal experience in civil, probate, misdemeanor, traffic, and bankruptcy law. She most recently practiced as a sole practitioner at the Farhat Law Firm, APC, and was previously employed as an Associate Attorney with the Ewaniszyk Law Firm.

In 2000, Ms. Amani completed her Masters of Law in International Law from the Loyola University, Chicago School of Law, and her Juris Doctorate from the University of La Verne, College of Law in 1996. She completed her Bachelor of Science degree in 1993, majoring in Business Administration, from the University of California, Riverside.

Superior Court Commissioners hear matters including, but not limited to, family law, small claims, unlawful detainers (eviction), child support, domestic violence, civil harassment, traffic and criminal matters. Commissioners must be active members in good standing with the State Bar of California, and be admitted to practice law in California for at least ten years.

For any additional questions, please contact the Communications and Public Affairs Division at 909-708-8779.
